

THE REGIONAL EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES COUNCIL OF NEW YORK CITY, INC.

NYC REMAC
Advisory No.	2022-05
Title:	NYC Paramedic Re-credentialing
Issue Date:	September 15, 2022
Effective Date:	January 1, 2023
Supersedes:	n/a	Page:	1 of 1

The Regional Emergency Medical Advisory Committee (REMAC) of New York City is responsible to develop, approve and implement prehospital treatment and transport protocols for use within the five boroughs of the City of New York. The Regional Emergency Medical Advisory Committee (REMAC) of New York City operates under the auspices of Article Thirty of the New York State Public Health Law.

ATTENTION:

- Effective January 1, 2023, the NYC REMAC, as part of its credentialing process, has approved elimination of the written exam for the purposes of re-credentialing paramedics to functionally operate in the New York City region.
 - Original paramedics will continue to require successful completion of the NYC REMAC Paramedic Exam.
 - Re-credentialing Paramedics must continue to maintain 72 hours CME, as detailed in the Certification & Credentialing Administrative Manual.
 - Additionally, paramedics must successfully complete all available Regional Updates as part of their re-credentialing process.
 - Regional Updates will be available on the REMSCO LMS portal and will have CME hours assigned based on the competency.
 - CME hours are not limited to those obtainable via the REMSCO LMS portal through Regional Updates.
- CME Based re-credentialing will be available for Paramedics whose NYC REMAC credential expires AFTER January 1, 2023.
- Paramedics are strongly encouraged to review credentialing requirements as published in the most current Certification & Credentialing Administrative Manual.
